

Code of Conduct – Members

Introduction

It is important that West Oxon Boxing and Fitness Club have established rules and codes of conduct for all our members. This ensures that all members are aware of the expectations within the club.

Codes of Conduct are Listed Below

- Always be on time for your session.
- Only use designated changing rooms based on your gender.
- No swearing or other inappropriate language.
- Illness while on the club's premises must be reported to your coach immediately.
- Treat the club and equipment with respect at all times.
- No taking club equipment away from the club without written permission from a coach or manager.
- All fees must be paid in advance where applicable.
- Show respect and courtesy to all fellow members, coaches, managers, and all visitors at all times.
- We expect you to encourage all members within the club.
- Members are expected to wear the appropriate clothing during each session.
- Loose jewellery must be removed or taped over prior to commencement of the session.
- Always represent the club with dignity and respect.
- Never bully fellow members or members from another club.
- Be aware of your own personal safety.
- Members must report any inappropriate language or behaviour that they witness to their coach or manager.

Sanctions for Breaching Codes of Conduct

It is important that all members take full responsibility and ownership of themselves if they are in breach of any of the codes of conduct.

The club will enforce varying sanctions should they witness breaches. These will be decided by the appropriate member of the staffing team or board of trustees.

These can include but are not limited to -

- Temporary exclusion from the club for a designated period of time.
- Restrictions or bans on travelling with or representing the club.
- Placed on a probationary period for a designated time, and your conduct reviewed by an appropriate member of staff.
- Membership being revoked.
